

Making appointments: giving you more choice

Question:

Would you like to be able to make appointments in the evenings, or at weekends?

Making appointments: giving you more choice

From October, 2017 you can use the new 'extended access' service

You can ask to book an appointment at a local NHS site, up to 8pm on weekdays, from 8am – 4.30pm on Saturdays, and Sunday mornings

Making appointments: giving you more choice

To ask for a routine appointment until 8pm, or at weekends, talk to our staff

For an urgent appointment at those times, call 111 and they can try to book you in

Making appointments: giving you more choice

To find out more about how local GP practices are offering you “extended access”, talk to our staff, or visit our website:

www.<practicename/EApage>